RAIL WORKER KILLED AS CAR IS DERAILED

Another Suffers Severe Injuries in Accident in Erie Yards This Morning.

Charles Rhymes, 42, of St. Louis, Mo., was killed almost instantly and a co-worker, George McKee, 25 of Cincinnati, O., was taken to City hospital following an accident at about 8 a. m. today in the east end of the Erie railroad yards.

According to railroad officials, the accident occurred when a push car, attached to a motor car, became derailed while traveling east toward a tool house.

Both Thrown from Car

The motor car was being operated by assistant foreman, H. H. Hypes of Marion at the time of the derailment. Both men were thrown from the push car and it is believed the head injuries were caused when they struck the rails. They were the only riders on the car.

Both were taken to City hospital in the Merle H. Hughes ambulance. McKee is being treated for scalp lacerations and his condition is reported to be "fair" by hospital authorities. Rhymes was pronounced dead upon arrival. Erie officials said his death resulted from serious head injuries.

Lived in Camp Cars

Rhymes had been working here since February, except for a period in April, when he left. He had just returned to work on May 9. Both were trackmen and lived in the labor camp cars located in the yards.

YOUTH SEIZED IN MORROW CO. CHASE

Faces Auto Theft Charge After Arrest in Woods.

Arthur E. Walters Jr., 18, of West Fistgill, Ga., was apprehended by state patrolmen and officers from the Morrow county sheriff's office about 10 a. m. today and charged with auto larceny, according to a report from Morrow county authorities.

He was arrested after the state and county police chased him approximately four and a half miles through county roads near Mt. Gilead. Walters had abandoned the car, the sheriff's office reported, and started off through the fields. The officers followed and finally located him in a woods a half mile west of the Mt. Taber church which is five miles northeast of Mt. Gilead. Officials said he gave himself up when they cornered him as he was attempting to cross a creek.

The car, owned by Harry Howell of Bucyrus, was stolen Thursday morning while parked in Galion. Charges were filed in Galion against Walters this morning and he will be turned over to police there, the sheriff said.

V.F.W. CALLS HOUSING EMERGENCY MATTER

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 26—An appeal to President Truman to declare a national emergency because of the housing shortage was issued today by Louis E. Starr, national commander - in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

At a conference yesterday on plans for the VFW's national encampment here next September, the Portland, Ore. commander asserted:

"Private enterprise has obstructed all housing so that not only the veterans, but the civilians, cannot buy. Thousands of units are standing idle throughout the nation—they cannot be sold because the prices are beyond the range of anybody."

Starr said the VFW had urged the federal government to make immediate funds available for industrial housing in which ready-cut, not prefabricated, materials would be supplied to manufacturing firms.

"Industrial housing is the only thing that can break the high prices of materials and houses," he contended, assailing the reconstruction finance corporation for obstructing loans to such manufacturers by asking "risk-money."

DEDICATE ROAD TO VETERANS

Rainbow Division Honored in Route 42 Ceremony at Delaware.

Rainbow division veterans of Marion joined service men from other chapters of Ohio and Michigan for the dedication of Route No. 42 at Delaware, yesterday. The highway, which extends from Cleveland to Cincinnati, bears the name of the famous 42nd Rainbow Division. More than 400 members of the division from the First and Second World Wars attended the ceremonies which were held in Willis High school because of the inclement weather. The auditorium, which seats approximately 1,500, was filled and many persons stood during the ceremony. With the exception of the parade set for 2 p. m., the scheduled program was carried out. Approximately 30 veterans from Marion attended and David H. Knickle placed the wreath on the grave of Col. Benson W. Hough, commander of the 166th Ohio Infantry at the Berkshire cemetery, as a representative of the Marion county chapter.

State Highway Director Murray Shaffer presented the road to Gen. Robert S. Beightler, a member of the division in World War I and commander of the 37th Division in World War II. Governor Thomas J. Herbert represented the people of the state at the dedication which was authorized by the Ohio legislature.

A model marker was unveiled at the ceremonies. Markers are to be placed along the highway later.

Two bus loads of veterans from Detroit, accompanied by Wilbur Brucker, former governor of Michigan and president of the Ohio Rainbow Veterans association, were present for the ceremony. The state association meeting will be held at Cincinnati June 6 and 8.

Mrs. Truman Grows Weaker with Hours

By The Associated Press

GRANDVIEW, Mo., May 26—Mrs. Martha E. Truman, growing weaker with the passing hours, drew comfort today from the nearness of the President.

Gray-haired President Truman, remembering the days when she nursed him through the illnesses of childhood, remained in constant touch with his mother.

It was simply a question of how long the tired and weak heart of the 94-year-old woman could carry on.

The President works in the living room of the home, moving into the bedroom at his mother's every call when she awakens from her sleep.

FORD POWER PLANTS STRUCK BY FOREMEN

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, May 26—The Foreman's Association of America, (Independent) today ordered withdrawal of supervisory employes from the power units of three Ford Motor Co. plants where a strike has been in progress for six days.

President Robert H. Keys of the FAA said he had notified the company that an estimated 18 foremen will be called out of the power plants at 10 a. m. Tuesday.

He added that maintenance of normal production would be increasingly difficult with the power houses unmanned by foremen.

The company offered no immediate comment.

The power house foremen had remained at their jobs with union permission since the strike began May 21.

Meanwhile, Henry Ford II, president of the company, appealed to the 3,800 striking foremen for "better understanding" in a letter telling "what I think" about the situation "in which we now find ourselves."

The statement, issued as an open letter, declared Ford felt the strike was not justified by circumstances. However, he added:

"We agree there is much to be done in clarifying the status of our foremen—particularly in the direction of making them a more effective part of management."

There was no immediate reply from officers of the independent Foreman's Association of America (FAA), which called the strike last Wednesday in a dispute over contract differences.

ALLIANCE WITH LATINS ASKED

Truman Wants Military Program Coordinated with Rest of Western Hemisphere.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 28—President Truman asked congress today to approve a broad program of military cooperation with all Western Hemisphere nations, including the arming, training, and organizing of the armed forces of Latin America and Canada.

Declaring that world developments in the past year give "still greater importance" to close hemisphere collaboration than a year ago—when similar legislation was proposed—Mr. Truman asked prompt congressional action.

A key segment of the program is the standardization of armaments throughout the hemisphere, and the transfer of U. S. military and naval equipment to the sister governments by "sale or other methods."

"This government will not, I am sure, in any way approve of, nor will it participate in, the indiscriminate or unrestricted distribution of armaments," Mr. Truman said.

The White House forwarded the message to conbress for Mr. Truman who is in Missouri where his mother is ill.

The President assured the legislators:

"It is my intention that any operations under this bill, which the congress may authorize, shall be in every way consistent with the wording and spirit of the United Nations charter."

"Reasonable" Support

The United States Mr. Truman said, will confine its military support to "reasonable and limited" purposes.

A more lavish distribution of weapons would "only contribute to a useless and burdensome armaments race," he said.

The President said the United States did not desire to "raise un-

Labor Backs British Draft

Ruling Party O.K.'s Conscription To Reinforce Bevin Foreign Policy.

By The Associated Press

MARGATE, Eng., May 26—The Labor party voted by a ratio of 2,332 to 571 today in favor of peacetime conscription to back up the nation's foreign policy.

The vote underlined an apparently waning opposition within the party to Secretary Ernest Bevin's stands. It repulsed "rebel" elements who have argued this policy was too closely aligned with that of the United States and too antagonistic to Russia.

A draft bill for 12-month conscription already has passed the house of commons.

Earlier today the ruling party's conference scaled down expressions of criticisms against Bevin's actions, and voted a rebuff to communism.

Defeat Red Motion

With Prime Minister Clement Attlee and nearly all of his cabinet attending, the party conference defeated by a show of hands a motion to permit Laborites to join the British-Soviet society. Opponents of the resolution said the society was dominated by Communists.

The conference also eliminated 19 resolutions, 15 of them critical of Bevin, and substituted on the agenda two composite motions, the most critical of which condemned British policy in Greece and denounced the "Truman doctrine" of aid to Greece and Turkey. The two substituted motions will be discussed and voted upon later.

Withdraws Criticism

The conference withdrew from the agenda resolutions sharply critical of British policy in Palestine. Instead, a composite resolution was submitted reaffirming the labor view that Jews must have a "national home" and constitute a majority of the population in the Holy Land.

Opponents of the house of lords submitted a resolution calling for the creation of an elected upper house to replace the house of lords as now constituted. The peers would be permitted to retain their hereditary titles, but no new hereditary titles would be created.

British Air Minister Philip Noel-Baker, party chairman, keynoted the conference with a call to the labor government to establish a "new relation of equality and confidence" among nations based on "a new world-wide intercontinental system of economic cooperation."

CLARK ACCUSES RUSS OF NON-COOPERATION

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 26—Gen. Mark Clark, back from Europe to become Sixth army commander, last night accused Russia of not cooperation in Austrian rehabilitation and said the Soviets fostered Communism in their zone by giving Communists more food and higher wages.

Clark, former commander of the American forces in Austria, returned from Europe Friday. He spoke last night on a radio program, "We the People."

"As far as the attitude of the Austrian people is concerned, free elections held throughout the nation resulted in an overwhelming vote against Soviet influence," Clark said.

"But since the first election in the Soviet zone, extra food, higher wages, and better rations have been given to Austrian workers who joined the Communist party."

The general said the U. S. Russia, France and Britain had agreed their occupying armies "were not to subsists off the land.

"Despite my personal, repeated protest to the Soviet high commissioners, the Soviet occupation forces—contrary to their pledge—seized Austrian farm products and livestock and other Austrian resources, and even exported surpluses above their own needs," Clark said.

"These acts increased the burden of UNRRA, and indirectly the burden of the American taxpayer who was the principal contributor to UNRRA. As a result, the Austrian people have existed on a starvation diet."

The general said that his protests over seizure of industries, foodstuffs and of the Danube river and its shipping facilities, in the Soviet zone, brought the Russian answer that "it's according to the Potsdam agreement.

COLUMBUS, O., May 26—A 27-year-old service elevator operator at the Deshler-Wallick hotel fell 25 feet to her death down an open elevator shaft today.

Fire Capt. William D. Wentzel said Mrs. Mattie Johnson apparently believed the service elevator was on the mezzanine floor when she opened the door with a special device. She stepped into the shaft and fell to the building's subbasement.

Wentzel said the woman laid at the bottom of the shaft for 20 minutes before being brought out with the aid of a harness by a fire squad.

She died in a police ambulance.

FERTILIZER COMPANY STARTS NEW BULIDING

Geo. Alber To Replace Structure Destroyed by Fire.

Construction was started this morning on a building to replace the factory of the Marion Plant Life Fertilizer Co. destroyed by fire May 16, George Alber, owner of the plant, said the new building will be one-third larger than the one destroyed and will be wider than the former structure. While the old building was 240 feet long overall, the new one will be 160 by 100 feet. Added height in the new building will allow for more storage space.

Estimated cost of the new building is $45,000, and the cost of replacing equipment will be approximately $35,000, according to Mr. Alber.

The plant will be of metal construction on a wooden frame resting on a cement foundation. Increased area is expected to nearly double the production capacity of the plant, Mr. Alber said. It is expected that construction will be completed within 60 days. Installation of machinery, he explained, will be completed after that date and he hopes to resume production Aug. 1.

Office space for the company will be located in a temporary room within the plant, Mr. Alber said, but plans call for eventual construction of a separate office building. Construction work is being done by Rieger and Son, Inc.

CONFERENCE IN JULY PROPOSED

Parley Suggested as Warning of Impending European Riots Comes.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 26 — Secretary of Agriculture Anderson today recommended a world conference be held in Europe in July to tighten up food management in countries likely to have another year of shortages.

At the same time, D. A. Fitzgerald, secretary-general of the International Emergency Food council, said the United States must rush to Europe this summer "maximum" amounts of food to prevent widespread violence and rioting.

Anderson made his suggestion in a letter to Fitzgerald as the council met here today to review the world situation and make plans for meeting needs of areas deficient in food until next year's harvest.

2 Moves Proposed

Anderson said the proposed conference should do two things:

(1) Explain the "urgent necessity" for conserving supplies produced in importing countries so as to make them last longer.

(2) Discuss food management programs for shortage areas with special emphasis upon ways of securing maximum collection of grains from farmers in those areas.

In submitting a report on the world situation, Fitzgerald urged the conference to act immediately upon the Anderson proposal.

Of more than 550,000,000 bushels of grain this country will export during the 12-month period ending June 30, about 120,000,000 bushels will be corn.

"The United States will of course make available every bushel of grain it possibly can spare and transport," Anderson said, "but this will not resolve the difficulties which appear to be facing the deficit grain supply countries."

Difficulty Next Year Seen

"It is apparent," he added, "that unless every precaution is taken to insure against dissipation of indigenously produced food supplies from the coming harvest, the world may be confronted a year from now with a food problem more difficult than at present."

Fitzgerald said the food shortage abroad between now and fall harvest will be at least as critical as last year, when emergency action was taken to provide relief.

He added in a report to the council that stocks in shortage areas are considerably lower than they were a year ago and "the cumulative effect of these food shortages is becoming more and more serious, nutritionally, economically and psychologically.

Rioting Stage Reached

"People are protecting more and more about the continued shortages. In some instances, the protests have reached the stage of violence and rioting."

The big need until harvest time is for cereals, Fitzgerald told the council. To meet this need, he said, the United States and Canada would have to ship 5,000,000 tons (about 180,000,000 bushels) during the July-September period. He described this as the maximum that can be expected from these countries in view of their own small reserves.

Such cereal would have to be supplied largely from this year's crop, which in the case of wheat will start moving to market late next month.

Argentina, Fitzgerald said, would have to furnish 2,000,000 tons, substantially more than that country has been supplying.

Reviews World Situation

The council is an inter-governmental agency charged with dividing scarce foods among importing countries. It met to review the world food situation and to make plans for the year ahead.

Fitzgerald, a former agriculture department official, said surplus-producing nations will need to continue heavy shipments to deficit areas at least until the autumn of 1948.

He said that in perhaps a dozen countries there is grave doubt whether supplies in sight will bridge the gap until the domestic harvest is available.

"In some countries," he said, "the situation is so precarious that a delay of harvest of so much as a week beyond the date now anticipated could be a deciding factor."

Shortage of Meats

The council, upon which 38 countries are represented, was told that the prospect of tight grain supplies for another year means a continuing shortage of meats in many importing countries, for the shortage of breadstuffs will make it necessary to use more coarse grains for human

Cole Bros. Circus Here Today; Moves To Crystal Lake Park

Noah had nothing on the Cole Brothers circus when it arrived in Marion last night. Although not forced to put the menagerie in a boat, circus officials found that they would have to find a new location to pitch the big top, usual show grounds at the Drake lot being partially inundated as a result of heavy rains.

Looking for land that was high and dry, officials ended their search at Crystal Lake park. Though unloading was momentarily delayed by the search for new grounds, performances were to be held as scheduled. A matinee was to be given this afternoon and an evening performance will begin at 8 tonight. Doors will open at 7 p. m. in order to give ample time for viewing the menagerie.

Special bus service to the show grounds is being provided. Starting at noon buses were scheduled to leave the courthouse every 20 minutes.

The circus train arrived at the Garden City pike crossing at 8:10 p. m. yesterday, coming from Columbus in two sections. The show was in Columbus Saturday and Sunday. It will leave Marion on the Pennsylvania railroad for Lima where performances will be presented tomorrow.

Memory of Farm Boom, Bust Of 1920 Scares Truman, Aides

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON, May 26—The boom in farm land prices is worrying President Truman and Secretary of Agriculture Anderson.

James Marlow

They remember the boom, and the bust, in farm land prices after World War I. They don't want a bust after this boom.

Here's a comparison of what's happening now with what happened after the First World War.

World War I started in 1914. The war meant a big demand for food. The price of farm products jumped. So, farm land prices jumped, too.

The war ended in 1918. Food needs still were great. Farm food prices continued up. So, farm land prices continued up.

Between 1914 and 1920 farm food prices went up a little over 100 per cent and farm land prices went up to 70 per cent.

1920 Depression Hit

The 1920 depression hit. Down went farm food prices. Down, too, went farm land prices.

Farm food prices recovered a bit in the mid-1920's. Not so with farm land prices.

Once they started to slide in 1920, they continued sliding into the depression years of the early 1930's. It was rough.

Not only was the 70 per cent increase in farm land prices over 1914 wiped out, but prices fell 27 per cent below 1914.

About 2,000,000 farmers lost their farms in this crash. They had gone heavily into debt to buy farm land while farm food prices had been good.

Worth Less Than Price

The drop in farm food prices meant their farm land was worth far less than they had paid for it. So, unable to pay what they owed on their farms, they lost them.

As the country edged out of the depression, farm land prices picked up a bit in the 1935-39 period.

Even so, by 1939 they still were 15 per cent below 1914. In 1939 World War II started.

With the war came another big demand for food. As farm food prices started upward, farm land prices started upward, too.

Since World War II started in 1939, farm food prices have come up 180 per cent.

More Than First Time

(They went up only a little more than 100 per cent between 1914 and the crash of 1920.)

Since 1939, farm land prices have risen 92 per cent. (As noted, they went up only 70 per cent between 1914 and 1920.)

A lot of farmers in the 1939-47 period—although not so many as in 1914-20—have gone heavily into debt to buy farm lands.

For many of them a bad crash now would be a repetition of what happened to farmers after World War I.

Worried government officials wish that farmers now, while still prosperous, would pay off their debts instead of buying more land.

Special Conference Called

At Mr. Truman's request, Secretary Anderson has called a conference here June 9-10.

It will be a meeting of government officials, leaders of farm organizations, bankers, and other groups which lend money to farmers.

The purpose: to ask the money lenders to tighten up a bit on loans that go into buying farm land.

The average price of an acre of farm land now is $51.33. But the range in prices is great.

It runs from less than $5 an acre for poor range land to perhaps $4,000 or more for specialized land like orange groves.

Kindergarten Pupils Present Operetta

Kindergarten pupils of Mrs. Martha Mills of 136 Hill street presented an operetta "The Cobbler and the Elves" before an audience of parents and friends Wednesday evening in the Parish House of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Musical direction was by Mrs. Pauline Davis. Preceding the operetta two recitations were presented entitled "The Little Elf" and "The Fairies Have Never a Penny to Spend" by Sharon Lawrence and Patty Burton respectively.

Children taking part in the presentation were Richard Myers, Angela McNamara, Richard Halley, Michael Bowe, Toni Brashares, Becky Morrison, Tommy Prichard, William Elder, Sharon Lawrence, Barbara Marshall, Patty Burton, Linda Probst, Kenneth Klatt, Joan Merchant, Jeffry Moritz, Jill Howser, Billy Blake, and Tommy Ruzzo. Douglas Fichtner and Kim Combs served as ushers and stage managers.

In 1914, only four per cent of the world merchant ships used oil, but in 1945 more than 75 per cent were oil burning.

FREEDOM FROM FEAR—Fourteen years ago, on May 10, the Nazis burned a huge pile of forbidden books before the vestibule of Berlin university. Speaking at the same spot on Free Book Day, in memory of the ill-fated event, is Anna Seghers, just returned from Mexico whose book "The Seventh Cross," later filmed by Hollywood, was also banned by Hitler's Reich in Germany.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Wrist Injury

Wrist injuries are a frequent aftermath of falls and since elderly people are more subject to falls than are younger and more sure-footed individuals, accidents to the wrist are a special problem in this age group.

By far the most common injury to the wrist is a break or fracture. Thus, if you fall and hurt your wrist at all seriously the chances are all against a mere sprain and all for an actual break. Many such breaks are overlooked, however, because the bone fragments are not usually thrown out of position.

According to Dr. David Lloyd Griffiths of England, if a wrist injury is severe enough to cause a patient to seek the service of a physician, it is severe enough to require an X-ray examination. This X-ray examination should include plates taken from the side, from the top, and at an angle.

Of course injuries to the wrist may lead only to a sprain, that is stretching or tearing of ligaments and muscles. A severely sprained wrist is liable to be painful for a long time, particularly in an elderly person. For this reason, Dr. Griffiths advises that such sprains be treated much in the same way as a fracture, that is with a light plaster cast. Fixing the wrist in such a cast gives the damaged tissues a chance for repair and may prevent the sprain from becoming chronic, that is, long continued. On the other hand, keeping the wrist in the cast too long is inadvisable since this may cause weakening and wasting of the muscle. As a rule, two to three weeks are long enough.

Of course, a cast should be well fitting, comfortable, and not too tight. Otherwise pressure on the thin skin of an elderly person may lead to development of ulcers or sores. There should be no restrictions of the movement of the fingers. Strapping of the wrist with adhesive tape is not advisable since it may damage the skin without giving as much rest or support as a splint or plaster cast.

If the X-ray examination shows that a break in the bones has occurred, proper treatment should be carried out as soon as possible. This means that the broken bones must be put into proper position by movement or manipulation while the patient is under anaesthetic. Then the proper type of cast is put on and allowed to remain on until healing is complete.

Wrist injuries can never be neglected without risk of permanent deformities and these will not only be unsightly but which will interfere with use of the hand.

Britons Toast Dowager Queen On Occasion of 80th Birthday

By The Associated Press

LONDON, May 26 — The ...est old lady in England ... 80 today.

"...ess May" they called her ... days of the empire building ... Queen Mary is her title now, ... revered by millions of ... Canadians, Australians, ... Africans, New Zealanders ... onials in an era when the ... of her girlhood shrinks ... day.

... has been a dowager queen, ... in name only, since the ... of George V, her husband, ... years ago, but the cheer that ... up when her ancient red ... appears gives evidence ... the British people regard ... her does not go by the calendar.

They laugh at her hats—when they remember them. They may ... her more radical subjects do—question whether the monarchy is needed in the modern world. But they smile affectionately when the old queen's name is mentioned, and they never fail to cheer when she passes.

MARY OF ENGLAND . . . "Every inch a queen . . . ."

One reason may be that Princess Victoria Mary Augusta Louise Olga Pauline Claudine Agnes of Teck has acted every inch the queen since she first ascended the throne alongside diffident George V in 1910.

Always a Queen

Through personal and national tragedy, she has retained the regal bearing. "Democratically," she picked up GI hitchhikers during World War II. But she did it as a queen. No one who has met her can imagine her forgetting the royal manner.

Tragedy struck early for "Princess May." Less than a month after he became engaged to her, England's Prince Edward, Duke of Clarence, died of influenza in 1891. Two years later she married Prince George, later to be king.

Every one in court circles though the marriage suitable. "We are much taken with dear May," said the old Queen Victoria.

But the reign of George and Mary was not a comfortable one for England. In four years came the first World War from which Europe, including England, never recovered. Then came economic depression.

King George died in 1936 and their eldest son, Queen Mary's favorite, succeeded him as Edward VIII. Every one knows of the crisis that preceded Edward's abdication. No one outside her tight circle of friends knows the agony it cost Queen Mary.

Whatever her own feelings, the old queen has abided by the decision of history. She has never met the American woman who became the Duchess of Windsor.

Keeps To Schedule

As her 80th birthday approached, Queen Mary held rigidly to a schedule that would have tired many women half her age. In one recent month she attended six exhibitions, an opera, a play and filled eight other public engagements.

She goes to any and all sorts of affairs — hospital benefits, industrial fairs, book exhibitions, pottery shows. Scotland Yard delighted her by taking her fingerprints, and solemnly keeping the impressions for future reference.

She loves plays and movies. The sound track of one film, "The Wicked Lady," was censored for fear it might offend her. But she turned up later at an uncensored performance of the U. S. play "Pick-Up Girl" and by her patronage, helped make it a hit.

One day recently she went with the Duchess of Kent and her children to Mme. Tussaud's Waxworks, for the first time in 40 years. Attendants said she had a wonderful time.

For all that most Londoners have seen her repeatedly, they form crowds and applaud whenever regal old Queen Mary appears. But they leave her in strict seclusion at stately Marlborough House, overlooking St. James Park, where she has lived since her husband's death.

To some, Queen Mary is the embodiment of a greater, happier era. To others, she is entitled to respect as a dignified woman of 80, royal antecedents apart. But offer a birthday toast to "the Old Queen" and you will look far for the Briton who will not smile and clink glasses.

Refugees from Futility Haunt Pinball Machines

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Writer

A CAPE IN SOUTHERN MISSOURI, May 26—Some historian of the post-atomic era will look back upon the present American heyday as the age of the pinball machine.

In the ruins of any contemporary town or city he will find scores of the rusted nickel catchers which are an outstanding feature of our culture.

Hal Boyle

For across the booming breadth of our land the pinball machine is a link greater than the bill of rights. It has become the Delphic oracle of our time.

In the old days the pioneers shot up the forest with their squirrel guns in quest of game or in revenge against the pesky redskin. Now civilization's Sonny Boy trains his eye and hand by manipulating the spring arm of a pinball bandit.

Juke Box's Cousin

The pinball machine is the country cousin of the juke box. The people who spend their nickels on juke boxes and pinball machines are entirely different. In psychological terms one is an extrovert group which likes to deaden its tension by blatant canned music. The other expresses its fugitive introversion by pinding away at an innocuous target, buying a respite from futility at five balls for a nickel.

What do the pinball addicts aim at? What are they really trying to score? What inner harmony are trying to gain, what balance against unseen frustration? What lost dreams do they see when the bells ring and the lights go up?

In every roadside cafe from Miami to Seattle you see these habitues of the pinball machine. For hours at a time they stand in ecstatic trace, hypotized by the clicking metal pellets that add up to tallies meaning nothing. They don't go anywhere, and they win nothing. They could just as well be watching goldfish for free.

Five-Cent Illusion

I suppose as the balls bounce around obstacles and click into the high number traps they solve symbolically by chance the real problems the players can't work out on purpose. A high score gives them the salary rise they didn't have the courage to ask for, or marries them to the girl they lost to someone else.

It's a cheap kind of psychiatry, a five-cent trip into illusion.

But what happens if someday someone wedded the pinball machine, the juke box and a restaurant counter together? Instead of a nickel, you would put in a quarter. The music would start playing, the five shiny balls would roll out ready for the game and a ham sandwich would slide out a slot.

There would be food, song and gambling all tied up in a two-bit bundle.

Why should a man ever adventure into matrimony then? For the sake of family life let's hope the pinball machine never takes up housekeeping.

SCIOTO PLANT BILL BEFORE COMMITTEE

Proposed State Purchase To Be Considered Tonight.

The senate elections and federal relations committee is scheduled tonight to consider permissive legislation for the state to acquire a part of the Scioto Ordnance Plant, a 1,200-acre tract of land north of Marion to be used as an adjunct to the proposed Boys Industrial school, and also the Fletcher hospital at Cambridge.

Legislators, returning today for another week at law making, found themselves in the middle of two powerful pressure groups —leaders trying to speed up work for an early adjournment and lobbyists pushing their pet measures to get them through before the session ends, an Associated Press dispatch stated today.

Both senate and house are prepared to bring up during the week sufficient bills to keep working at top speed, and committees are swamped with bills awaiting final hearings and action.

Both senate and house finance committees will be rushing to get the finance bills out of the way.

The house committee is revamping the $81,000,000 additions and betterments bill to freeze all present appropriations and many additional ones for new construction and permit only emergency construction.

The senate finance committee will be getting the $585,000,000 current expenditures bill ready. Universities and other departments which suffered deep cuts at the hands of the house finance committee are applying the pressure to have those cuts restored by the senate.

The house on Tuesday is slated to consider the Christian Science and strip mine bills, both of which on previous occasions have proved highly controversial. The former would permit Christian Science practitioners to charge for their services. The strip mining bill would set up standards for regulating coal strip mining within the state.

REV. C. T. CRENSHAW

REV. C. T. CRENSHAW RESIGNS PASTORATE

Will Retire from St. Paul's Church Pulpit June 30.

Rev. Claire T. Crenshaw, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church for the last two and one-half years, has resigned his pastorate here, effective June 30. Occupying the pulpit for his farewell sermon yesterday morning, Rev. Crenshaw officially announced his resignation to the congregation after having presented it to the church vestry at a meeting last week.

Rev. Crenshaw will take a month's vacation during June. He plans to request a leave of absence from the ministry and will enter secular work for a period of time.

Entering the ministry in 1936, Rev. Crenshaw served pastorates in Alabama, Indiana and Ohio before coming here from St. Paul's church at Norwalk, O., in the fall of 1944. He is a native of Alabama and attended Duke university at Durham, N. C. and Virginia Theological Seminary at Alexandria, Va.

The local church will be served by supply pastors until a permanent pastor is appointed.

STATE MAY START SUIT IN WU CASE

Court Action Hinted To Determine P.U.C.O. Authority.

Action by the state utilities commission may be started in Franklin county common pleas court June 2 on the proposal of the Western Union to close six Ohio offices. The June date marks closing of the records on a hearing held by the Federal Communications commission at Mt. Gilead May 14 on the company's proposal to close the office and substitute telephone service in the communities which would be affected.

Back of the issue is the question whether the telegraph company has the right to close offices without permission of the P.U.C.O., Ohio officials may decide to seek an injunction against the closing after the records on the hearing are closed, news reports from Columbus indicated.

As far as service is concerned the state has no objection to closing the offices and substitution to handle the business through telephone companies. Under the proposed system a message may be called from any telephone, and a teleprinter will send it to the nearest office to be transmitted. The new service would be available 24 hours on all days, including Sundays and holidays.

The company holds that states have no control over operation of Western Union offices, pointing out that when the company merged with Postal Telegraph in 1943, congress provided no such control over closing of offices or extension of service. The company says the only rights states have is to approve or disapprove rates on messages crossing state lines.

It is possible that neither the P.U.C.O. or FCC will have the final say on the company's action, and indications are that the case may be taken to the U. S. supreme court for the answer.

Ohio offices affected by the dispute are located at Mt. Gilead, Marysville, Bellefontaine, Delphos, Lebanon and Ottawa. All were absorbed from the former Postal Telegraph systems.

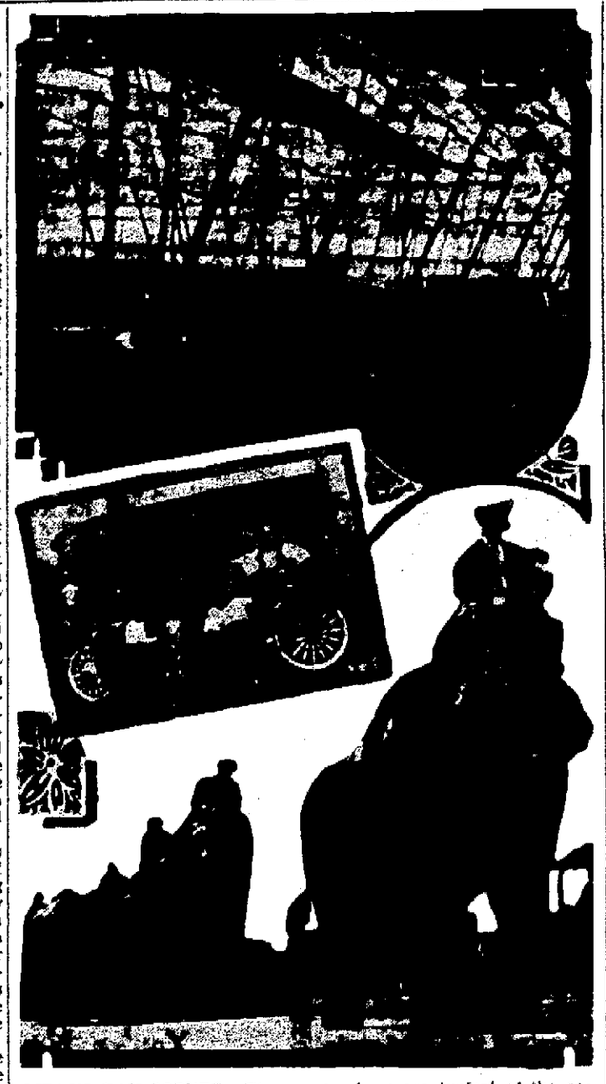

Only Slight Damage As Diesel Hits Auto

Believe-it-or-Not Ripley would probably rub his eyes, but an auto suffered only slight damage when it was knocked off a railroad track by a diesel locomotive at the Kenton avenue crossing early Sunday morning.

A car driven by Ralph L. Secord of route 1 Waldo stalled when he started across the tracks, the front part of the car in the line of railroad traffic.

A westbound Erie delsel locomotive hit the car and swung it around off the tracks causing damage to the left fender.

CIRCUS DAY SCENES. The scenes above are typical of the activity seen here today as the Cole Brothers circus prepared for its showing at the Crystal Lake park. A performance will be given tonight at 8 o'clock, and one was scheduled for 2:15 this afternoon.

ARCHITECT IS HELD IN VET LOTS FRAUD

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 26 — A 59-year-old architect from suburban Worthington was arrested today on a week-old secret indictment charging he obtained money under false pretenses in connection with the sales of building lots to veterans.

Harrison M. Boyd, identified by Assistant Prosecutor William C. Bryant as a landscape architect, was scheduled to be arraigned in criminal court later today.

The 10-count indictment asserted the Worthington man sold lots in a 69-acre subdivision with the understanding the federal housing administration would approve 80 per cent of a loan on houses to be built on the lots, with the remaining 20 per cent to be guaranteed by the veterans administration.

VA said it never had heard of the lots sales, Bryant said, and FHA told the prosecutor's office approval would be given only if about $1,000 was spent improving individual tracts.

Bryant said the veterans also were told material to build the first 10 homes was on hand. Investigation, he said, showed the material was not on hand.

The 10 counts of the indictment, charging both obtaining money under false pretenses and signing land contracts under false pretenses, were based, said Bryant, on five cases heard by the Franklin county grand jury and five signatures obtained to contracts.

The secret indictment was returned last Tuesday.

ROBERT TAYLOR TAKEN TO TASK BY RUSSIAN PAPER

Film Star Accused of Lacking "Political Morality."

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, May 26—American film star Robert Taylor was taken to task in Izvestia yesterday because, a writer in the government paper said, he had revealed a lack of political "morality" in his recent testimony to a U. S. congressional committee investigating Communism in Hollywood.

The attack was authorized by A. M. Gerasimov, a Stalin movie prizewinner in 1943, who said that Taylor by his own testimony had played the lead in the movie "Song of Russia" during the war against his own wishes and under the duress of American officials.

"Quite obviously the same old round American dollar is the reason for everything," Gerasimov declared in a letter to the editor of Izvestia. "Conscience, honor and even the very elementary representation of decency are tied up conveniently with the dollar, for which Taylor, according to his own statements, sold his 'American conviction'."

Ship "Nevada" To Be Tested

Pearl Harbor, Bikini Survivor To Be Probe for Radioactive Data.

By The Associated Press

HONOLULU, May 26 — The battleship Nevada, only capital ship to get under way during the disastrous surprise attack on Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941, will be steaming into that same harbor again about June 10, towed by two tugs at the end of 1,000 yards of cable.

Nicknamed "Old Imperishable" after her experience in the European war theater, the Nevada was the bullseye ship of the Bikini atom bomb target fleet last summer. She survived both aerial and sub-surface bombings, and began her 2,000-mile trip back from Kawajalein to Pearl Harbor on May 21.

The Navy wants to conduct more research into the bomb's most deadly byproduct—radioactivity—and will study the Nevada for methods of decontamination.

Among other target ships still at Kwajalein, the Navy is particularly interested in the transports Briscow, Brule, Dawson, Fallon, the destroyers Mugford, Stack and Rhine, and the concrete barge Yog 83.

The submarines Skate and Skipjack are undergoing study at Mare Island, Calif., while the transports Crittenden and Gasconade are being tested at the Navy's radiation laboratory at Hunters Point, Calif. The carrier Independence also will be studied in California.

Among other target ships, the cruisers Pensacola and Salt Lake City and the destroyer Hughes are assigned to Bremerton, Wash.

Safety standards for personnel working on all these target ships are higher than those for X-ray work and are rigidly enforced.

CHURCH PREPARES TO MARK CENTENNIAL

Congregation at Galion Plans Active Week's Program.

Special to The Star

GALION, May 26—This week will be one of anticipation for the members of the congregation of Peace Lutheran church as they make final preparations for the centennial services of the church which will be held Sunday, June 1, through the following Sunday, June 8.

The church and parish house have been redecorated for the celebration which will bring Dr. Harold L. Yochum, president of Capital university at Columbus, here as speaker for the opening service of thanksgiving at 10:30 a. m., June 1.

At 4 p. m. on the same day, the dedication service will be held for the 32-bell Deagan Carillon, the $26,000 gift of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Liggett which was recently installed in the belfry of the church. There will be a carillon recital following the dedication.

Other special services and activities are planned for the remainder of the week, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Sunday.

The church was organized May 31, 1847, and services began in a union church at North Union and West Church street which was shared by the congregations of First Lutheran and First Reformed churches. Some time later, the Peace Lutheran and First Reformed congregations went together in a church on South Market street where they continued several years until the Peace Lutheran congregation bought out the interest of the Reformed in the building. The Peace congregation worshiped there until 1874 when the present edifice was erected.

Score One for Henry

HENRY WALLACE discovered on his recent speaking tour that large numbers of Americans left high and dry by receding favor for the New Deal were willing to donate lots of enthusiasm and a little money to his third-party movement. He doesn't call it that—yet—but you can tell that's what it is.

The former vice president and his strategists don't need to be clairvoyant to see why a third-party movement in 1948 is inevitable. The only place for the Democratic party to go when it's rebuffed in a general election (as it was last November) is into the reactionary fastnesses of the solid South and the conservative dungeons of the urban North. There is no room in these snug refuges for the Wallaces, who were just along for the ride anyway.

The Wallaces either must force themselves on the Democrats in this instance, or commit political hara-kiri with a third-party movement. Wallace's speaking tour was to find out how much support could be drummed up for a lost cause. The finding was favorable. There apparently are many thousands as anxious as he is to take out their spite by backing a third party next year. The political repercussions may make a bigger noise than the tub-thumpings of Republicans and Democrats.

Plenty of Houses for Sale

DESPITE the reported shortage of veterans' housing, there are plenty of houses for veterans standing unoccupied all over the nation. There are more than 2,200 in and near New York City.

One of the reasons is that many a young veteran isn't in the market for a house; he wants rental property. He is buying a car and furniture, his plans are indefinite and he isn't ready to invest in a house.

The current housing shortage is, of course, many-faceted. There are other reasons veterans aren't buying available homes, and veterans' sales resistance is but one phase of a broader problem. But it is a contributing factor to the general curtailment of new construction. Builders with money tied up in houses they cannot sell will not invest additional funds for other construction work.

The National Game

WE AMERICANS think of baseball as our national game. We say it reflects our national spirit.

But reflecting a nation's spirit can be tricky. It can be tricky in the way a mirror is tricky; you see the things you don't like as well as the things you do like...things like the fumbling search for, and the apparent discovery of a high commissioner tailored to the specifications of a club owner whose cheap-jack commercialism has shocked even his own employes; race discrimination; the antics of a big-league manager which caused him to be suspended, but now seem to qualify him for consideration as a bigger drawing card than ever; gamblers doing everything but coach at first base in some places, according to honest baseball men sick about the cutthroat air making the national game look like a brawl in an old-time pool hall. If this is the game that reflects a nation's spirit...

Great jumping jeeps! Maybe it does!

A Seller's Market

COLLEGE graduates this year will find plenty of takers when they offer their services on the job marts. There'll be jobs for everybody, and some of the highly-qualified graduates—the 49 Ph. D.'s at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, for instance—may receive as much as $6,000 a year to start.

Next year the job outlook will be less bright. By the time the Class of '49 starts looking for jobs, competition really will be stiff, for scores of thousands of former GI's will be offering their services.

Meanwhile, it's a seller's market. College graduates, like lumber, paint, new automobiles and newsprint, have been in short supply several years. Any graduate whose diploma is worth the sheepskin it is written on should be able to do very well for himself.

A Chore for a Chortler

THE MILL HAND in Pawtucket, R. I., who was arrested for "reveling" has had his $4.50 fine refunded and his name has been expunged from police records, which should give him the last laugh.

The police chief said the man had a laugh that was funny the first time you heard it, but that it was disturbing thereafter. Merchants had complained that he was laughing in the business district when there was nothing to laugh about, not even the prices in the Spring remnant sales.

Surely there must be a niche in one of the many curious byways of American civilization for this exponent of chuckle, chortle, snicker and guffaw. Perhaps a radio comedian could find a place for him in his claque. Or at least a college humor magazine might nominate him as Mr. Belly Laugh of 1947 and have him pose laying a wreath on the grave of Joe Miller.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON

Stassen's Idea Fine If It Will Work.

WASHINGTON, May 26—Candidate Harold Stassen said all the right-sounding words in his Iowa campaign speech advocating loan of 10 per cent of our national production for 10 years to the world. He said we do not want the lighthearted, give-away, ten billion program of Henry Wallace or the sharpster lending of the conservatives, but a sensible, sound program to feed world needs and help our own production.

Unfortunately he did not propose what he said or even mention the size of it to see if it would work. You would think his first consideration would have been the size of the project, because he would first have to measure how big it is before he could possibly know if he could obtain the laudable purpose.

Well, our gross national product for 1947 is estimated by the commerce department at $206 billion based on first quarter earnings. But this includes goods and services which cannot be exported, such things as barbershops and bellboys. You could not export a bellboy soundly, any more than you could export "gross national product," but the commerce department has another figure on exportable gross national product, estimating how much we produce which is physically exportable. This figure is $100 billion for 1947.

$10 Billion Program

If Mr. Stassen wants to export 10 per cent of this, he has a $10 billion annual program, which singularly enough, is just exactly the same size as Wallace's. Indeed it is ten times bigger, because Mr. Stassen proposes to do it each year for ten years. The whole Stassen cost then would be $100 billions or approaching half the national debt. For this year alone, it would mean we would give the world nearly a third as much as the government expects to collect for its budget in taxes from all the people. The size of its project is 25 times the $400 million aid to Greece and Turkey for one year only.

Without mentioning the amount, Stassen wants to lend it sensibly to foreign nations for purchase of our goods, which incidentally are so scarce they have run prices up skyhigh. This similarly unmentioned incidental of the plan is the most important part of it from our human standpoint. Until we get competition in goods, prices will not come down, the senate survey says. But we are already today exporting to the world at the same rate Stassen proposes. Our exports are running $9½ to $10 billion, which is 10 per cent of our national exportable product. To add another 10 per cent on top of it before competition is restored would do something further to American prices which Mr. Stassen had better consider in campaign speeches to consumers.

But alright, say we do it anyway after relief exports die down and we get competition. Lend $10 billion more to whom for what? Mr. Stassen says he would lend it to any nation but not especially to those who call "Communist" the loudest. Alright. For what?

Would Take Raw Materials

Mr. Stassen says we should not be expected to be paid in dollars or manufactured goods because the nations have neither. He says we should be paid in raw materials. Alright, what raw materials? Name something, Mr. Stassen did not do this. He could not possibly name raw materials of which we need $10 billion more a year for ten years. If he had named any farm products, he would need a visa to get back into Iowa for another speech. He barred manufactured goods. Raw materials, he says. Miners, maybe? His campaign would not go over big in Montana, Nevada and the western states if he named some of those. The truth is we do now import about $2¼ billion a year of raw materials, about half of which are crude foodstuffs. We have a little stockpile going, which could certainly be enlarged. But the question is where can we find need for $10 billion more a year than we are getting. Or any field for $10 billion more a year of importations.

This proposition sounds like the good old days of not long ago, when proposals sounded good and laudable, but no one even added them up in advance to see if they would work or had a chance to work.

Stassen had a good sounding idea. Some government economists say they could not figure out what he meant, and they are inclined to think he was just endorsing the current Democratic program of 10 per cent exportable production exportation. They must be kidding because a Republican candidate does not go to Iowa to sell a current Democratic trade idea. A better explanation might be that Mr. Stassen had just returned from Russia where the public is never permitted to see the addition.

The only possible workable suggestion along this line which has come to my attention is that foreign trade expansion start with a survey of the United States to determine how much we could possibly use or store. Start at the other end. See how much more world raw materials is usable here. Determine first how much you can promote the importation of products for use and let that fix the size of your foreign advances. Promote that angle and then measure your program to it. Then your advances would be sound, as Stassen advocates. Otherwise you will be just giving money away as Wallace advocates, no matter what you call it or how vague you are about it.

No Rust, No Squeak

Hangover-free whisky can be made from petroleum, according to the head of the chemistry department of Purdue university.

Whatever may happen to the rest of the market, look for a boom in oil stock.

The oil-rich Near East takes on even greater importance, now that it is known that Peroleum may be used for intoxi—as well as lubri-cation purposes.

Yes sir, our oil reserves will be depleted even sooner once all the Men of Distinction start drinking Old Crankcase.

Revenuers will have to learn a new technique now that they're on the lookout for illicit wells.

And AA will have to establish a new subsidiary — Oilcoholics Anonymous.

Incidentally, is this whisky from petroleum business really new? If so, whence the familiar expression, "well-oiled?"

Ohio Blind Vets Get Jobs

Majority of 66 Are Working or in Training.

COLUMBUS, May 26 — Majority of Ohio's 66 blind veterans of World War II either are working or in training for employment, Deputy Administration Ralph H. Stone of the Veterans Administration Branch Office in Columbus said today.

Twenty-five of the state's blind veterans now are employed in full or part-time jobs, many of them having completed their rehabilitation under VA supervision. An additional 19 now are receiving vocational rehabilitation through VA, including 15 who are in institutional training and four engaged in on-job trainng. Twenty-one have not entered into any type of training and one is hospitalized.

Several of the state's employed blind veterans are engaged in industrial occupations, such as punch press operator, assembler, hand die operator and electrical worker. Others are employed as musicians, farmers, vending stand operators, and insurance salesmen. One operates a commercial photographic studio, another has an auto repair shop and still another is in the electrical appliance business.

Of the four blind veterans who are taking on-job training under VA, one is employed at a chicken hatchery. Another operates a cushion-filling machine, the third is in general shop work and the fourth operates a vending stand.

The 15 blind veterans attending vocational schools or colleges are taking such courses as music, social service, typing and Braille, business, agriculture and phsiotherapy. One is enrolled in a premedical course.

Rehabilitation is available to eligible blind veterans, as well as other eligible disabled veterans, under provisions of Public Law 16 (Vocational Rehabilitation Act), which is administered by VA. These veterans are given advisement and guidance to help them select educational and vocational objectives commensurate with their interests and aptitudes.

Certain types of equipment also are available to blind veterans to help them overcome their handicap. The list of approved aids for the blind includes Braille writers, desks, slates and paper. Braille pocket slates, Braille watches and typewriters. Guide dogs, dark glasses, glass eyes and radios also may be obtained at government expense.

An ancient law of Great Britain states that a person must go to church on foot; otherwise the local constable is called on to confiscate the vehicle and sell it for the indigent of the parish.

Cafe Life Is Hot For a Fire Buff

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO — Sam Hollander runs a lunchroom, but his favorite pastime is eating smoke.

When the announcement of a big blaze comes over the air from the police broadcasting station, Sam grabs an ax, helmet, boots, rubber coat, special fire department pass and bolts out.

"I'm a fire buff," he explains.

"In addition to the radio in the lunchroom, I keep five at home. One in my bedroom stays on all night. I have trained myself to hear calls in my sleep."

Besides helping the professional flame fighters, Hollander takes movies of the fires, and later shows them to the firemen at their stations.

Stassen Takes Political Gamble

By JOSEPH and STEWART ALSOP

WASHINGTON, May 26—Harold Stassen has laid it on the line. He has come right out—bang!—with what a great many people have known but what no politician of real stature has dared to say, Stassen has said, in effect, that if the western way of life is to survive, the United States must revert to something close to a peacetime form of lend-lease. Moreover he has chosen the traditionally isolationist state of Iowa for what promises to be an exceedingly interesting experiment in American politics; telling the people the truth.

This unsual step may well be motivated by two glum political facts with which Stassen is now confronted. One is the condition of the Stassen political organization. The other is his standing in the public opinion polls.

His organization has not exactly gone to the dogs, but by the time Stassen returned from his junket abroad, the sound of barking was already audible. The heart of political organization is money, and the Minnesota fund, the Stassen war-chest, has been limping along on a distinctly hand-to-mouth basis. The sinews of the Stassen organization—articulate mass support which might force him down the throat of the by no means Stassen-loving old guard—were to have been provided by the Stassen-sponsored Republican open forums. The forums started out in a burst of glory.

Enthusiasm Wanes

When they were announced last summer, almost a thousand were formed—on paper—by enthusiastic Stassenites throughout the country. These enthusiasts, however, quickly discovered what other political amateurs have discovered before; that this sort of political work requires a great deal of time and effort. Hundreds of local forums died aborning.

Then the national organization began to feel the financial pinch. In a somewhat desperate gesture, the Republicans National Committee was asked to step in and support the forms. The National Committee refused this old request—for Stassen and some of his supporters to the contrary, the open forums are in effect Stassen clubs—with a mixture of surprise and indignation. Less than two hundred local forums are now functioning, and the forum organization is being rather half-heartedly supported, largely by the Minnesota fund.

In brief, the political picture which confronted Stassen on his return was not such as to cheer the heart of a man confronted under any circumstances with a fight so uphill as to be virtually perpendicular. Moreover, the waning drive behind the Stassen movement was no more than a reflection of Stassen's waning popular support. In the public opinion polls, Stassen now stands right back where he was in the spring of 1945. By May, 1946, Stassen had spurted up to a point where he stood neck and neck with Thomas E. Dewey. The latest polls show that he now has less than a third of Dewey's popular strength, with Senator Arthur Vandenburg, the growth of whose popularity in the polls has been slow but steady, nudging him for a poor second place.

Political Gamble

Perhaps unconsciously, all this may have been in the back of Stassen's mind when he plunged the more politically professional of his supporters into stygian gloom by remarking casually on a station platform that he might accept the vice presidential nomination. It is more probable that it was consciously in his mind when last Wednesday he stood up at the annually community celebration at Jefferson, Ia., to deliver a politically amazing speech.

It is evident that Stassen has embarked on a daring political gamble. There can be little doubt that a desperate economic and political emergency is forming up in Europe and elsewhere. There can be little doubt that only a great,and decidedly costly, American effort can avert the lonely isolation of this country in a hostile world. The emergency may soon become too close and threatening to be ignored.

And Stassen, by speaking out now, may some months hence be remembered as the politician who first had the audacity to tell the unpleasant truth. It is a strange, and interesting, political experiment.

Aid for Refugees Planned by Swiss

By The Associated Press

BERN, SWITZERLAND — The federal justice and police department is studying the possibility of granting permanent asylum to between 4,000 and 5,000 refugees in Switzerland.

During the war, temporary asylum was given to a total of 283,000 refugees from 28 countries. Many of these were persons who came into Switzerland in fear of imprisonment or death. Some of them were remnants of Axis armies routed by allied victors.

The bulk of the refugees have been repatriated.

Approximately 5,000 who remain consist mostly of aged persons, children, or individuals too ill to move. Most of them are in internment camps or in homes. Some children are in Swiss homes where they have become almost foster children in Swiss families. The question of granting Swiss citizenship to these children is under consideration.

Daily Bible Thought

It is not enough to be shrewd and efficient, we must obey eternal moral laws: "But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the Lord, with all his heart, he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, wherewith he made Israel to sin."—II Kings 10:31.

The Once Over

The Public School and the Auto

THE idea of public school instruction in automobile driving is getting places. Cleveland has been doing it for some time. It will soon be tried in Brooklyn vocational high school. Why not in all schoolrooms everywhere?

• • •

It is either that or having the schools tell the rest of us how to duck.

• • •

School is but an intermediate stop between the cradle and the express highway.

• • •

Today's children are tomorrow's triple threat autoists.

• • •

Of all the things that the kids will do after graduation, the most certain is that they will drive motor cars. What does it profit society if a child comes out of school a fine speller and a fair botanist, but doesn't know that an automobile has no landing gear?

• • •

What's the percentage for the betterment of civilization if little Willie comes out of the classroom able to spell Constantinople the first time but unable to read "STOP" the third?

• • •

You merely have to watch the grown-ups handle an automobile to realize that the Little Red School House has been teaching the wrong things all these years. It is no help to a pedestrian to know that he has been run over by a man who could read and write well.

• • •

At present anybody can get a license to operate a car. The applicant has merely to write his name in full, know where he lives and make a guess on the color of his eyes. That will give him a diploma cum laude in potential manslaughter, elementary and advanced.

• • •

In some states there is such a thing as a test but it is limited to making an applicant prove that he can disentangle his car from the rear fender of the car ahead without damaging the rear one.

• • •

By all means let our schools get busy at once. Let them open every morning with a reading of the daily accident reports. Let this be followed by an elementary color test, employing the only two that count—red and green. This might be followed by a lecture on the modern automobile, making clear that it can't do its own thinking and that it is not designed to travel wrong side up.

• • •

Then a blackboard demonstration, using a large drawing of a brake and some such lettering as "This is a brake. The brake is a part of the motor car. It is put there to retard speed. It is illegal to use it anywhere."

• • •

"It is not the same as a pedal on a piano."

• • •

It might be well to demonstrate, too, that something is wrong if a steering wheel turns all the way around as in roulette, that autoists over 18 years of age have a legal right to be outdoors too, and that no matter what the salesman says a touring car has no lateral wings or rudder.

Saving the Service

By TRUMAN TWILL

The leg-paint season is back and promises to be another fairly horrible experience for a fellow who winces at bad brushwork.

The females have made progress since they took up gam veneering during the sheer-stocking shortage, but are still likely to give their legs a lick and a promise—and the public a sight not for sore eyes.

One of the gadgets added to leg-makeup equipment, we notice, is a buffer that puts a shine on the calcimine after it has been slopped on the props. Maybe in another year the red-blooded entrepreneurs who've been pulling the gals' legs in this decoration deal will have a machine to do this work—something a doll can stick her tootsies into, pay a dime and come out with a mechanical shine job. There's also some stuff available to put on the legs before varnishing them.

Another thing we notice (and this is the tipoff about the commercial angle on leg paint) is the fact manufacturers of this stuff now tell on the bottle how many pairs of legs it will make up—avergae size, that is, no piano legs allowed. The return of sheer stockings, in other words, isn't hurting the pin-paint business a bit, because at prevailing prices and qualities most females still are better off financially doing their own decorating.

Furthermore, the leg paint conceals, ahem, blemishes, and if anyone wants to know why we are messing around with a topic that should be turned over to the lady columnists it's because we are convinced that women are breaking the ice for the weaker sex; namely, American males.

The way things are going, it won't be long until only the wealthy males in this country will be able to afford to wear pants. All the rest of us will be in shorts, maybe clouts. There will be a bull market in leg paint. The large economy sizes will sell like new Buicks in a sucker-money boom.

We are going to need something to cover up blemishes with one easy application, such as the blemish on the left shin left by tin-can hockey and the scar on the not-so-fatted calf that's a memento of an ice-skating accident. We also are going to need something equivalent to a manageable, fool-proof, fully-portable, low melting-point blowtorch to get our leg surfaces ready for painting.

And most of all, men are going to need something that will hold up and not fade after 24 hours, because shaving every day leaves no time for monkeying with leg paint oftener than once a week. The women probably will have all this worked out by the time the men have been taxed and overcharged out of their pants in this, the good old Underprivileged Saps Association.

California Counts Grapes

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO—California grapes may be eaten fairly soon as grapes, or dried for raisins or dumped into the wine press. Figures for the 1946 crop of 2,606,000 tons show what happened.

A million tons were crushed for wine and brandy. About 970,000 tons were made into raisins, and more than half a million tons were shipped out as fresh grapes.

Only 11,000 tons wound up in cans.

Lynch Target Gives Self Up

Outruns Mob, Surrenders to FBI After 48 Hours in Woods.

By The Associated Press

RALEIGH, N. C., May 26—A young Negro, who outran almost certain death at the hands of a white lynch mob and then hid without food for 48 hours in the dense pine forests of northeastern North Carolina, was in state prison today after giving himself up to the protective custody of the FBI.

In the predawn hours of last Friday morning an armed, masked band of white men seized Negro Godwin "Buddy" Bush, 24, from the Northampton county jail in Jackson where he was being held on charges of attempting to rape a young married white woman.

They carried him to one of four waiting automobiles. Bush gambled, wrenched himself free, and fled into the protective darkness. A mob member fired one shot and missed.

Late yesterday after some 75 law enforcement officers had spent two days combing the woods for Bush—or his body, since no one was certain he had escaped—a Negro preacher called Solicitor Ernest R. Tyler.

Bush was ready to surrender, the preacher said, if Tyler would guarantee he would not be harmed.

Tyler and two FBI agents went to an appointed place and found the Negro. They brought him here to the prison last night.

The solicitor would permit no interviews and gave out only the bare facts of the surrender. However, it was learned here that Bush had remained in the woods until early yesterday. Finally going to the home of a friend after being without food since his escape.

Bush was charged with attempting to rape Mrs. Margaret Allen Bryant, a young stenographer, last Thursday night in Rich Square, a small community in Northampton county 12 miles from Jackson, the county seat.

Bush will remain at Central prison under the attempted rape charge. In North Carolina attempted rape is a felony which may be punished by imprisonment ranging from four months to 30 years.

New Yorker Charges Assault and Robbery

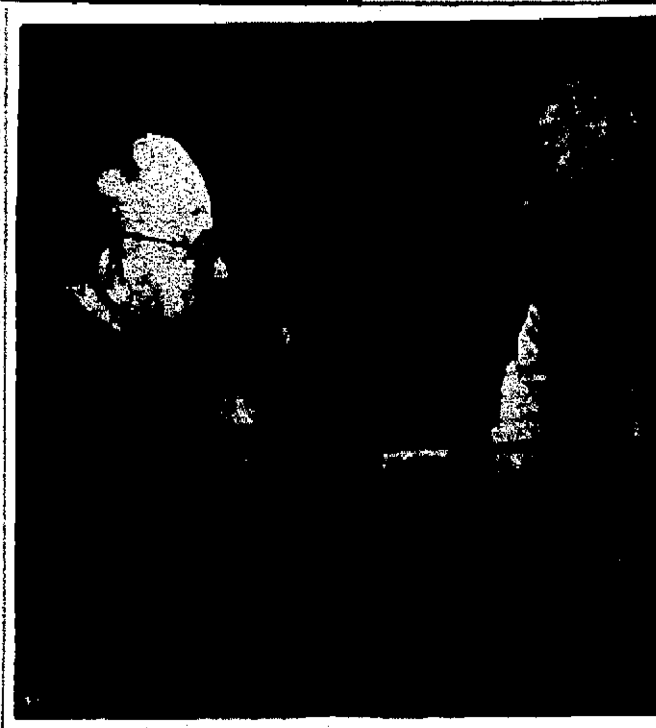

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 26—Police said that Mrs. Audrey Cropp, 27-year-old wife of Lt. Col. Stanley Cropp of Fort Hamilton, reported early today that she had been raped and robbed by two men she and her husband met at a bar and grill last night.

The two men had invited the Cropps to go from Brooklyn to a Manhattan night club. On the return trip their automobile stalled and they asked the colonel to give it a push. While he was out of the machine they sped off with his wife, police said Mrs. Cropp told them.

Stopping a blocks away, one of the pair raped Mrs. Cropp and the other took two wallets containing $52 from her pocketbook, she told police. The pair then put her out of the auto and drove away.

OHIO BANDITS CAUGHT AFTER GUN BATTLE

By The Associated Press

CANTON, O., May 26—Two Youngstown ex-convicts today faced armed robbery charges after being captured by police yesterday in a wild gun battle which ended when their get-way automobile stalled on Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks.

Police also searched for a third gunman, who escaped down an alley with $400 in loot after exchanging gunfire with two police squads.

Robert A. Ignath, 24, and Henry A. Lipinski, 23, former inmates of the Minnesota state reformatory, were charged with armed robbery after their attempt to rob clubrooms of the local maintenance union of $1,000 was partially foiled by a quick-thinking patron and prompt police action.

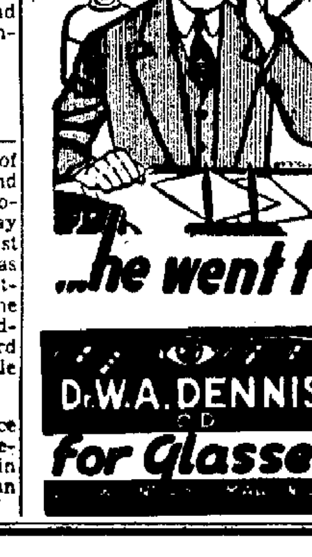

Patrolman William Renz said a patron at the club slipped out a side door, unnoticed, when the bandit trio pulled guns, herded 20 customers into another room and forced them to line up against a wall.

Detectives quoted the captured gunmen as saying they stopped in several establishments between Youngstown and Canton for drinkswhile "looking for a place to rob."

3 Dover Seniors On Carpet Over Picnic 'Open Drunkenness'

Special to The Star

DOVER, O., May 26 — Three seniors at Dover High school were summoned to appear tonight before the school board to answer accusations of "open drunkenness" at their annual senior picnic last week.

Their reported behavior, board members announced, topped the list of reasons why the picnic—a 23-year-old-tradition—has been abolished.

If the boys appear with apologies, they will be permitted to appear with their classmates at graduation exercises next Thursday, the announcement continued. Otherwise, they will receive their diplomas privately, it added, and will be barred from the commencement.

The board's cancellation of the affair was made on the recommendation of Acting Superintendent D. C. Lemmon at an emergency session Saturday.

Shortly after the board vote, some members of the senior class supported the three boys, saying they had been unfairly singled out. A petition started the rounds threatening boycott of the commencement exercises, but slowed down after it had been explained that the three would receive their diplomas under any circumstances.

About 10 days ago a "citizens committee" of 13 civic leaders met to discuss what they considered a "large amount of drinking" by certain young persons of this community of 11,000.

The group's chairman, Andrew Miller, a Salvation Army captain, said, however, that all conclusions had been temporarily tabled.

SAYS BRITISH USING LOANS IN TRADE WAR

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 26 — Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) contended today that Great Britain is "using our own loans against us" in a battle for world trade centering around such products as wool and cotton.

The Wyoming senator, who voted for the $3,750,000,000 British loan when it was approved by congress a year ago, told a reporter he regards recent action by the British parliament as putting an end to private cotton trading

(Parliament earlier this month passed a bill banning private importation of cotton and closing the Liverpool cotton exchange. The bill provides for a government commission to buy the fiber in bulk lots, as was done during the war England also maintains controls over wool sanctions)

'We are up against a wall of state monopolies in the sale of wool and cotton and any international trade agreement is doomed to failure until we succeed in getting Great Britain and Russia to agree to a private trading system again," O'Mahoney declared, adding·

"The British are using our own loans against us to finance these operations The Russians are doing the same thing in the way of operating state monopolies"

Because foreign governments instead of individuas, do the buying and selling, O'Mahoney said it is important that congress act to protect the domestic wool industry guarantee of price support approving a pending bill some backers predicted would veto in the form it passed the house last week.

House Puts Aside Work To Honor Dead Member

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 26— The house put aside its business today out of respect for Rep Fred Bradley (R-Mich).

Bradley's death Saturday in New London, Conn, dramatically pointed up a warning he issued only three weeks ago

He said that Washington, with its continuous round of entertainment in addition to the many legislative chores, is more than many congresmen can take

"It's a physical and mental strain hardly imaginable to the folks back home,' he said.

The jovial, 49-year old Bradley suffered a heart attack while on an official trip to inspect the Coast Guard academy at New London

Ship Wanders Over Lake Erie; Denied Docking by Unions

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 26—Union dockworkers established a boycott today against the S. S. Jupiter—a "ship without a port"—as the freighter roamed Lake Erie.

"We have all coal ports covered by our men, and we are ready to set up picket lines if the Jupiter attempts to take on cargo," Sam Waitzman, local publicist of the CIO-National Maritime Union, reported.

Since leaving Detroit and her 24 striking crew members Friday night, the 7,000-ton bulk cargo vessel skirted two Lake Erie ports but did not attempt to dock at either city, Waitzman said.

After touching at Sandusky, O., the Jupiter arrived at Fairport Harbor early yesterday, but left after "hanging around" the harbor, he said, adding that the ship probably would experience difficulties at all ports because of union dockworkers' refusal to load the vessel.

Walter C. Secord, vice president of the Jupiter Steamship Co., operator of the vessel, said the company was in contact with the ship by ship-to-ship telephone, but declined to disclose the carrier's whereabouts. Other sources said it was headed east.

Joshua Lawrence, national NMU director, filed charges with the U. S. Coast Guard yesterday contending the Jupiter was unsafe because she was improperly manned. Waitzman estimated the Jupiter carried only three or four unlicensed men, and six officers, but Capt. William T. Kiel of the Detroit steamship inspection service, reported the ship hired 16 crew members at Sandwich, Ont., after leaving Detroit.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, May 26—A Cincinnatian today offered a reward of $1,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of persons involved in the slaying of George K. Zavakos, 59-year-old Dayton, O., businessman, who was shot to death early Saturday in front of his Dayton View home.

Louis Chakeris Stathos, who identified himself as "a dear friend" of the slain bowling establishment and restaurant owner, said he made the offer, to be effective for a two-week period ending June 7, in a letter to the Dayton police department.

The letter stated, Stathos said, that the reward was offered "in order to expedite the incentive of those interested in bringing the killers and accomplices to justice in the shortest possible time."

Taxpayers Reminded Of June 20 Deadline

County Treasurer Marion Hinklin today reminded taxpayers that the June 20 deadline for the payment of real estate taxes is less than a month away.

Taxes now being collected are those for the last half of 1946. Mr. Hinklin said payments are lagging at the present, only about 15 per cent of the total having been paid.

He said the June 20 deadline has been set by the state tax commission to enable school officials to determine the amount of money they will have available for next year before the new term opens in the fall.

4 IN TEXAS FAMILY KILLED BY DOCTOR

By The Associated Press

NEW BRAUFELS, Tex., May 26—Willard H. York, 36, prominent San Antonio investment company head, and three members of his family were shot to death on a rural road west of here yesterday as they were driving to church.

A charge of murder against Dr. Lloyd I. Ross, San Antonio physician, was filed in justice court in connection with the deaths. The physician also was charged with assault to murder in the wounding of a fifth member of the family—York's 13-year-old daughter, Ann.

Besides York, the dead are his wife, Mrs. Gertrude O. York, 43, their son, John, 9, and York's mother, Mrs. Mary York, 67.

Dr. Ross appeared at San Antonia police headquarters after the shooting and told Detective Joe Hester that a gun which had been discharged could be found in his car. The former family physician for the Yorks was turned over to Sheriff W. A. Scholl.

On March 19 1947, York was charged in U. S. district court in San Antonio in a complaint filed by the securities and exchange commission, with violation of the securities exchange act of 1934.

At the same time, Dr. Ross filed suit against York asking judgment in district court here. The suit charged that York was indebted to him in securities, stocks and bonds amounting to $80,279.67.

SMITH TAKES PART IN RFC HEARING

Marion Congressman Inquires About Authority Over Agency.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 26—John D. Goodloe, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, told the house banking committee today that "my own thought is that the RFC ought not to be made permanent."

This reply was given a question by Banking Wolcott (R-Mich). Unless congress acts, the big government lending agency goes out of business June 30. The banking committee, making a study of federal credit and financing operations, must decide what to do about the RFC's future.

Goodloe testified there has been a great deal of discussion in congress and outside as to whether the RFC will or should be "liquidated." He continued:

"My own feeling is that it ought to be continued beyond June 30, and that congress should look at it periodically and decide. Maybe the time will come when it should not be continued. But I don't think that time is now."

Rep. Frederick C. Smith, (R-Ohio of Marion, O.,) asked Goodloe whether it ever occurred to him that such economic forces had been set up through the RFC that it "might be beyond the power of congress" to end the agency.

"I certainly never thought congress did not have the power to terminate it," Goodloe replied.

COLUMBUS RADIO STATION HEARING DATE DELAYED

Bricker's Application Buried Under 1,000 Prior Requests.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 26—The communications commission is trying to set a date to consider applications for new radio station operations at Columbus, O., one of them from Senator Bricker (R-Ohio).

An official said today, however, that it will be a long time before the hearing can be held—there are about 1,000 other requests on file.

Senator Bricker's application was filed in the name of Capitol Radio, Inc. The other request came from Heart of Ohio, Inc.

Officials said they are required to hold public hearings when two or more applications are in conflict as to frequency, power and time of operation.

Both Capitol Radio and Heart of Ohio request 860 kilocycles with one kolowatt power, daytime.

Senator Bricker, three times governor of Ohio, said his radio plans will not be affected by a bill to prohibit members of congress from operating broadcast stations. The bill was introduced by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis).

Bricker told a reporter that it would be just as reasonable to bar congressmen from farming or any other enterprise as to keep them out of the radio business.

Navy Memorial Services Held

150 Brave Elements To Pay Tribute to Marion War Dead.

A crowd of 150 persons braved the elements to attend the Navy Memorial service held Sunday at Forest Glen Memorial park. The services, scheduled for the lake bank, was held in the park cathedral and broadcast over the "singing tower."

The U.S.S. Marion, the local club's ship, which was used in recruiting service in Cleveland during the war, was refitted for the occasion and was tied up on the west lake bank. Officials of the Navy club announced that she will now be permanently berthed at Forest Glen.

The program was opened with "Anchors Aweigh," Marine Corps Hymn and "The Star Spangled Banner" by Mrs. Virgil Curl, organist. Alfred Whittington, club commandant introduced Rev. Garrison Roebuck who pronounced the invocation. "Crossing The Bar" was sung by the Deep Sea Quartet, composed of O. W. Wetzel, Elmer Harruff, Paul Lill and Ray Feaver.

Commander William E. Medford, United States Navy, who gave the memorial address, stressed that America should keep the faith of the boys who died in World War II. He said we were guilty of allowing the cause "make the world safe for democracy" of World War I to become a mockery; that thousands gave their lives only to have a more vicious threat to world security develop with the rise of Adolph Hitler and Benito Mussolini. He declared that "for generations we have tried to live at peace with the world, and failed," that "peace today can only be maintained by the strong" and quoted General George Washington's first address to the congress "to be prepared for war is one of the most effectual means of preserving peace." "Hence it is the belief of present leaders that a strong military establishment will serve as a determent to ambitious world forces."

After "Sailor Rest" by the quartet, a memorial ritualistic service was presented by Mr. Whittington, Dwight Allman and Rev. J. B. Holloway, with Henry Uline casting an anchort of white carnations upon the lake. A salute to the dead fired by eight sailors led by H. D. Pickett, and taps by Lieut. Robert Haldeman ended the service.

Ushers were members of Boy Scout troop 91, which is sponsored by the Navy club.

Church Egg-Throwing Demonstration in Court

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, May 26—A Sunday egg-throwing demonstration by parishioners of St. Michaels (Carpatho-Russian) church, with their pastor as target, wound up in court today.

The barrage of eggs met three uniformed policemen and Rev. Fr. Constantine Klumatyki as the quartet was mounting the steps of the church yesterday.

Liberally splattered with egg along with the pastor, the officers arrested six men and 10 women on charges of disturbing the peace. Arraignment was set for today.

Police said the incident developed from demands of a faction in the congregation which sought to have the pastor dismissed. Rev. Klumatyki had obtained a court order to prevent the dissidents from interfering with services, and the officers had accompanied him to church to carry out the order.

Heiress, Fiance Go On Trial for Killing Parents

By The Associated Press

SANTA ANA, Calif., May 26—Heiress Louise Overell and her husky finance, George Collum, went to trial today on murder charges stemming from the death of her wealthy socialite parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Overell, aboard their dynamite-blasted yacht March 15.

Calmly the 18-year-old journalism coed and her 21-year-old premedical student sweetheart declared their innocence as they spent a pretrial Sunday in the county jail, she knitting and chatting and he playing checkers with a cellmate.

The dramatic case, which may involve one of the longest trials in years in Southern California, had many elements which intrigued the public since that Saturday night when the Overell power cruiser, Mary E, blew up and sank in Newport harbor, leaving the shattered bodies of the parents in its twisted hulk.

Ohioan Prefers Prison To Carp-Spearing Fin

By The Associated Press

CIRCLEVILLE, O., May 26—Robert Chester, 45, fumed in Pickaway county jail today and let his 45-acre farm and livestock go unattended rather than pay fines and costs totaling $46.20 for spearing two Scioto river carp with a pitchford.

Carp are non-edible, he speared them merely for sport, and he intended to hurl them back into the river, Chester insisted before Justice of the Peace Harold O. Eveland. Furthermore, he stormed, he was the victim of a "racket" and would appeal his case.

The justice, however, took the attitude that the Ohio general code had been violated. And no one came up with the standby recipe for cooking carp on a shingle to challenge the farmer's contention of their inedibility.

A dozen other men paid fines of $15 and costs in Justice Eveland's court in a three-day period last week on like charges brought by fish and game Protectors Chalmers Burns and Clarence Francis.

F. S. McNeal Predicts Bright Future for Refrigeration

F. S. M'NEAL

Greatly increased production for the refrigerating and air conditioning industry was predicted on his return to Marion today by F. S. McNeal, newly elected president of the Air Conditioning and Refrigerating Machinery Association at their convention in Hot Springs, Va.

McNeal is a vice president of International Detrola Corp. and general manager of the Universal Cooler division here. Other new officers elected at the Hot Springs, Va., meeting of the Association are: George F. Jones Jr., Servel, Inc., first vice president; Ross Rathbun, Baker Ice Machinery Co., Omaha, Neb., second vice president; P. A. McKittrick, Parks-Cramer Co., Fitchburg, Mass., treasurer.

New Members Admitted

Four new members were taken into the association, Frigidaire division of General Motors Corp., Dayton, O.; Acme Industries, Inc., Jackson, Mich.; Fedders-Quigan Corp., Buffalo, N. Y., Schnacke, Inc., Evansville, Ind.

"There's better living in store for all of us through modern refrigeration processes," Mr. McNeal said. "Wider use of frozen foods in improving the nation's health and making fresh foods available all year long. This new industry is changing the world's eating habits and creating a tremendous market for processing machinery, cabinets and display cases, and refrigeration transportation facilities.

"Refrigeration soon will be used much more extensively in reducing human suffering. War research has discovered many exciting new uses for refrigeration in fever control, amputation of limbs, combating shock and hemorrhage, the treatment of burns, and in many other medical processes."

Mr. McNeal also declared that many new applications of refrigeration in industrial processing will soon be announced. These processes will help reduce manufacturing costs and make better products possible. Refrigeration is already being used to cool machine tool coolants, pre-cool rivets, and treat steel making it more ductile and shrink fittings for easier and better fits.

Other Fields Opening

"In the future refrigeration also will be in greater demand for chemical, pharmaceutical, and scientific processing," Mr. McNeal predicted. "Refrigeration is essential for many of the secret processes in the manufacture of the atomic bomb, for example."

He also is optimistic about the future of the air conditioning business. He pointed out that workers can perform their duties more efficiently and live more happily when we are comfortable. Very few stores, offices, hotels, railroad cars, and other similar places are now air conditioned, he said. In addition to this huge market, new building will require a large supply of the industry's equipment.

Air conditioning has new horizons in production of penicillin, nylon, rayon plastics, and many other products where accurate control of temperature, dust and humidity are essential."

ONG Seems Certain To Inherit Ft. Hayes Site

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 26—The Ohio National Guard appeared likely today to get all the facilities it needs at Ft. Hayes when that historic old military installation is abandoned by the Army.

An Army spokesman in Washington told Ohio newsmen approval of a request by Adjutant General Chester W. Goble was "a mere formality."

He said it was established practice for the war department to withdraw from surplus Army establishments any facilities useful in the National Guard program.

Ft. Hayes is scheduled to be given up by the Army soon.

Observers speculated part of the Guard's training program this summer might take place at Ft. Hayes.

"Political" Tax Cut Deplored

Sen. Barkley Opens Democratic Attack on G.O.P. Levy Plans.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 26—Senator Barkley (D-Ky), supporting a motion to defer action on tax cutting until June 10, declared today that "no tax reduction can be sound that is based upon political expediency."

With a close vote due at 3 p. m., on the postponement move by Senator George (D-Ga), Democratic leader Barkley told his colleagues that no one believes congress will cut President Truman's $37,500,000,000 budget for 1948 by even the $4,500,000,000 pledged by the senate, much less the $6,000,000,000 voted by the house.

"Certainly," Barkley asserted in a prepared address, "we do not now have anything approaching a clear indication of the total appropriations which will be enacted by this session of congress and to that extent we will be talking up a blind alley."

Not Sentimental Matter

Barkley said the Democrats do not seek postponement of the bill because of "sentimental objection to tax reduction."

"We recognize the necessity," he added, "of appropriate, well considered, tax reductions at an appropriate time. We emphatically assume the position that existing wartime taxes cannot be continued permanently, or for a very long period in the future * * * But we believe that no tax reduction can be sound that is based upon political expediency."

He said millions of holders of goverment bonds are entitled to feel a "supreme confidence" in the solvency of their government and if they ever lose faith there will be a "real depression" with a "disastrous repercussion around the world."

"Approach with Caution"

"Let us, therefore," he continued, "approach this vital and important subject with caution and in the light of the facts. Let us see a little further into the future before we commit ourselves to a policy which we may not be able to reverse, even though a necessity for a reversal should arrive.

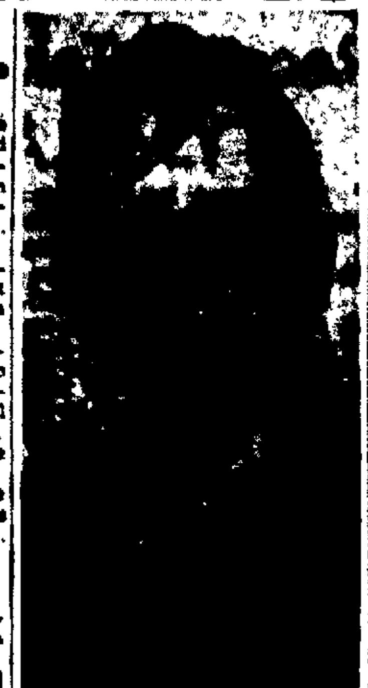

Barkley said he would not only support the deferment motion but a substitute by Senator Lucas (D-Ill) to make tax cuts effective next Jan. 1 instead of this July 1 as provided in the senate committee bill. The government's fiscal year begins July 1.

Nothing Lacking but "Big Top" As Cub Pack Stages Circus

By MARY HERRING

Not all of the 300 spectators who turned out for the Boy Scout Cub circus Saturday afternoon were youngsters. There was a liberal sprinkling of adults who seemed to enjoy the affair quite as much as the boys and girls.

Proceeds for the afternoon totaled $35 for the Pack with each of the seven Dens who operated concessions netting an average of about $4 in addition to the former amount. Pack proceeds will be used for a celebration dinner and summer camping while the Den money will be spent for handicraft supplies.

The circus which was staged by Troop and Pack 29, sponsored by the Forest Lawn Presbyterian church was held on a vacant lot at the corner of Barnhart and and East Center streets. The festivities started with a parade at 1 o'clock from Carhart street. Heading the parade was a police escort with Chief William F. Marks and Owen A. Sifritt fire department chief, taking part. The artificial animals which the boys had made were a special attraction. Also in the line of march were several "ferocious" animals in cages and cleverly designed costumes which looked like lions and other wild animals but which turned out to be very good camouflage for some of the Cubs from the pack.

Ringmaster in Blackface

At the corner where the tent was erected the show went right into action. Fred Spurlock, ringmaster abandoned the top hat and full dress and appeared in a GI rain hat black face make-up and a hanging shirt tail. He ably introduced each act which included a tap dance, a strong man act and a snake charmer.

Excitement ran high when the lion act came into the big top and the "lion" got loose from its trainer and ran around the inner fringes of the spectators.

The second performance in the big top was started about 2:30 p. m. Games of skill were in use as was the pop stand and hot dog concession.

The best entertainment of the afternoon in the idea of many of the little ones though was the pony ride. One of the Den mothers had three ponies on the lot and the animals were kept busy with the constant change of riders.

Although the circus is a regular part of Scout Cubbing program, officials said this is the first one that has ever been held in the Harding area by a single unit.

Harding Band Plays

Music for the parade was furnished by the Harding High school band. Henry True who donated use of the lot acted as grand marshall.

A little business was mixed in during the first show when Robert Williams was inducted as a new member and John Marshall was presented with the wolf award.

Although the first aid tent was in readiness there were no serious injuries. The only casualties were tears from some of the little ones who became separated from their families.

DUNKIRK MEMORIAL

KENTON—Hugh Taylor, Kenton attorney and World War II veteran, will be the speaker at Dunkirk's Memorial Day services to be held Friday, May 30, in the Dunkirk cemetery.

In England the wolf became extinct in the reign of Henry VIII; in France and Germany it still exists.

Dodgers Here For Crucial 3-Game Set

The Cubs are back in town for a crucial three-game series with the first place Zanesville Dodgers.

The locals are back after making a trip south in which they were set back twice by Dayton and rained out Saturday and Sunday at Springfield.

Now trailing by four games, Burbrink's boys will be out to sweep the series and move to within one game of the coveted spot. A single game is on the schedule for tonight. The clubs will play a doubleheader tomorrow.

Browns Due Wednesday

The Cubs will complete the home stand with games Wednesday and Thursday with the Newark Browns and Memorial day with Lima. They'll take a break in the stand to play at Lima Memorial day in the afternoon.

It's going to take a lot of hustle for the home performers this week because both Springfield and Dayton are now on their heels, each club being but half a game away from the No. 2 spot. The Cubs are known as home performers because their win average has been much better on local grounds than on road trips.

The only Ohio State league game over the weekend was a 5 to 4 victory by Muncie over Zanesville in 10 innings Saturday.

A new pitcher has been sent to Marion by the Chicago Cubs. He is Clarence Lawrence who comes here on option from Clinton, Ia., a class C club. He is a right hander. Tomorrow is the deadline for the final cut down and Burbrink will have to shave a couple of players from the local roster.

Two dates for make up games with Lima have been announced by Ohio State league headquarters. June 4 and 9 single games will be played at Lincoln park.

Schlairet at Lincoln Park For Memorial Day Tilt

Schlairet will play the Chicago Cub Training School from Mansfield at Lincoln park Memorial day afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

This training school is for the purpose of developing talent for Cub farm teams and is made up of star high school athletes who are not allowed to sign contracts now.

It is coached by James Lymper, the Mansfield High school backfield coach.

Many of the boys next year will get tryouts in class D ball and it's not improbable that Marion will benefit by training players receive in the school.

Yesterday Schlairet had the same luck they have been having for the past several Sundays. Sandusky Boosters were booked, but rain took over.

Ohio Rural Teachers Average $1,637 Pay

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 26—An Ohio education association survey shows rural elementary teachers of the state now have an average salary of $1,637 and one-fourth of them get less than $1,454 a year.

In a statement yesterday, Walton B. Bliss, executive secretary, said the statewide average for all teachers is now $2,181 compared with $2,010 during the 1945-46 school year. The increase in the average was due largely to passage of local school levies, he declared, adding that some school boards operated "in the red" to retain qualified teachers.

Bliss declared the senate-passed vernon of the Daniels-Cramer school aid bill was "barely adequate" in solving the teacher salary problem. Recent slashes in the bill's provisions by the house education committee, he asserted, are "unjustified reductions which represent false economy."

Last year was the first season that Stan Hack has failed to get 100 hits.

JOE MEDWICK BACK WITH CARD CHAMPS

May Show Slipping Redbirds How To Hit Southpaws.

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, May 26—Joe Medwick has returned to the St. Louis Cardinals—and Manager Eddie Dyer hopes the veteran outfielder can give his men some much needed pointers on how to hit southpaw pitching.

Joe gave 27,000 fans a convincing demonstration of his knowledge of the subject yesterday.

Signed as a free agent shortly before game time, the former member of the Cardinals' Gas House Gang of the mid-thirties was sent in as a pinch hitter in the second game of a doubleheader with Pittsburgh.

On the mound for the Pirates was crafty Fritz Ostermueller, a southpaw four years older than Medwick himself.

He was showing his usual effectiveness against the Cards who have looked like anything but world champions against southpaw hurling. With two strikes on him, Medwick nailed one of Fritz's slants high against the right field screen for a double.

The hit didn't win the game. It didn't even tie the score, but it scored Del Rice with the Cards' only run.

This spring Joe was signed by the New York Yankees when it appeared Joe DiMaggio might be slow in recovering from a heel operation. The Yanks released him about a month ago.

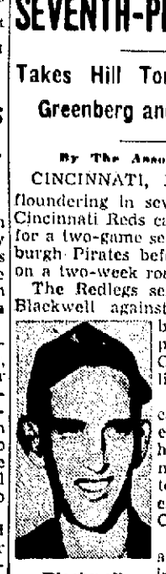

BLACKWELL TO PROP SEVENTH-PLACE REDS

Takes Hill Tonight Against Greenberg and Company.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, May 26 — Still floundering in seventh place, the Cincinnati Reds came home today for a two-game set with the Pittsburgh Pirates before starting out on a two-week road trip.

The Redlegs send lanky Ewell Blackwell against Hank Greenberg and Company under the Crosley field lights tonight.

Blackwell

Although Chicago collected only three hits from Cincinnati pitchers yesterday, they were enough for a 3-1 Cub victory.

The Cubs scored all of their runs in the fourth inning, after two were out.

Phil Cavarretta sent a looping fly to right field, Frankie Baumholts missed a shoe-string catch and before he recovered Andy Pafko reached home from first. Bob Scheffing, Chicago catcher, promptly homered to give the Cubs a 3-0 lead.

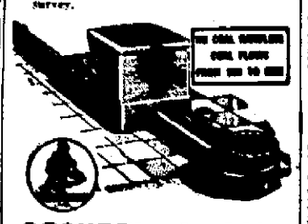

The Reds came through with one marker in the sixth on a double by Baumholtz and two infield outs, Rookie Kent Peterson was charged with the defeat.

In 1942 when Ernie Bonham won 21 games he issued only 24 walks.

Records Take Beating In Y.M.C.A. Track Meet

Records made last year took a beating in the citywide Y.M.C.A. track meet held at Harding stadium Saturday.

Seven new records were made in the junior high meet, three in the high school division, and one in the Gra-Y events.

Edison swept the junior high meet making 45 points, which was the possible. The meet was a relay affair and top totals of each performer were added to get the distance or height in the field events. Central was second in the meet with 23 points and Vernon third with 13.

The Delta Hi-Y club, juniors, scored 28 points in beating Universis, sophomores, who scored 20. These were the only two clubs represented at the meet.

Officials in charge of the meet said they believed the reason for such a small turnout in the high school events could be accounted for by the fact that many boys have Saturday employment.

Forest Lawn was the winner in the Gra-Y division with 31½ points. Oakland was right behind them with 30. Other scores were St. Mary 26, Oak Street 19½, Pearl 14, North Main 8, and Greenwood 7.

MICKEY ROCCO,

OHIO TOWNS DIG OUT OF FLOOD'S DEBRIS

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, May 26—Suburban Hamilton county communities sprayed mud and debris from their streets today as the flash-flooded Miami and Whitewater rivers, and other smaller streams, returned to their banks.

A two-inch rainfall Saturday night and early yesterday sent the streams out over rural highways, and numerous basements in neighboring Elmwood Place, Lockland and Reading were flooded.

The U. S. weather bureau discounted the possibility of an immediate flood here on the rising Ohio river. A crest late today of 38 feet—14 feet under flood stage—was predicted. The river's rate of rise last night was less than two-tenths of a foot an hour and the stage at midnight was 37.1 feet.

County police said there were no reports yesterday of serious damage. No injuries were reported.

Nearly a foot of water was reported on some streets near the flooding Millcreek, and state route 50 was covered for a time by the Whitewater river from neighboring Elizabethtown westward to the Indiana state line.

At Lebanon, more than 1,000 gas consumers were without fuel for two hours yesterday when a creek flooded the municipal gas plant. Several families were reported driven from their homes by flood waters in the Lebanon area.

Basements in Hamilton also were flooded as sewers failed to carry off the heavy downpour of

SECOND-PLACE TRIBE TO BATTLE DETROIT

Black Guns for No. 4 Against AL Leaders.

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, May 26—Cleveland's Don Black aims for his fourth victory today as the runnerup Indians open thier battle for first place against the American league-leading Detroit Tigers.

Rained out of a scheduled doubleheader with the St. Louis Browns yesterday, the idle Tribe moved into second place as the New York Yankees hung a 17-2 pasting on the champion Boston Red Sox. Cleveland now has suffered more postponements than any other major league club.

Yesterday's postponement marked the 12th washout of the year for the Indians, and one-third of their scheduled 36 games to date have been rained out. It also was the third Sunday bill postponed because of weather conditions.

Spiking rumors that the Cleveland Indians might leave the sixth city, Tribe President Bill Veeck today assured Ohio fans that the Redskins are not going to move to "New York, Los Angeles—or even Elyria, O."

"Cleveland and the Cleveland fans have treated us a whole lot better than we could have asked for and we're mighty grateful," said the energetic Tribe prexy. "We're quite satisfied here and, unless something drastic happens, we'll remain for a good long time."

Veeck said he would wait for Cleveland city council action on Mayor Thomas A. Burke's withdrawal of his offer to rent the stadium to the Indians for 15 years. The action climaxed a dispute over construction of a midget auto race track at the municipal bowl.

2 Sessions of Play Set In Night Softball Loop

Marion's Night league, newest softball loop, will follow its schedule of four games in two nights again this week.

Tomorrow night Smitty's will play Universal Cooler and Junior Chamber of Commerce will meet Shantytown Bar.

Thursday Marion Engineer Depot will play Marion Metal and Huber will meet Schlairet.

First games are scheduled to start at 8 p. m. and league rules call for the second game to start 15 minutes after the first is completed.

Postponed games are to be rescheduled after July 29, the last date for regular loop play.

GALION TEAM LOSES

GALION, May 26—Galion High school baseball team lost its game to Shelby, 8-4, at Heise park here Friday afternoon. The last game of the season will be played here with Bucyrus Tuesday afternoon. This will complete the Northern Ohio league schedule.

2 Fire Calls Answered, No Damage Reported

Two fire alarms were answered by Marion firemen over the weekend, Chief Owen A. Sifritt reported today. The first was to the Baber Bakery Co., 136 South Prospect street at 2 p. m. Saturday when an oven motor and blower ignited. Firemen from Central station responded. No loss was reported.

The second call was to the Charles Campbell apartment, 207½ North Main street, answered by firemen from the East Mark street station and quad truck from Central station. The alarm was turned in when a pedestrian noticed smoke pouring from the window. A pan of meat had burned, filling the rooms with smoke. No loss resulted.

Yank Bombers Blitz Bosox Champs 17-2

By The Associated Press

That explosion you just heard was the rumor of Yankee dynasion blowing up.

The new Yankee spirit born of last week's "revolution" continued to blaze fiercely in the stadium yesterday when the New Yorkbludgeoned the Boston Red Sox, 17-2, handing the American league champion the worst beating any big league club has absorbed this year.

Before the cannonading was over, a total of 17 hits, good for for 29 bases caromed off Yankee bats as the aroused Bronx Bombers won their third straight from the Red Sox.

Fines Pay Off

The victory marked the fourth straight win for the Yankees since their "insurrection" last Wednesday when six of their members including Joe DiMaggio and Charlie Keller were fined by President Larry MacPhail for refusing to pose for pictures in a promotional venture.

A home run by Williams, his eleventh of the season, with one one in the ninth, accounted for the only runs Boston has made against the Yanks in three games.

The Yanks were still three games behind the league leading Tigers, who divided a doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox in Detroit. The Tigers, behind the seven-hit pitching of Newhouser, won the opener handily, 10-1, but the White Sox came back to win the second game 5-2.

Newhouser

Washington, paced by Stan Spence's three-run homer in the first inning, defeated the Philadelphia Athletics 3-1 in the opener of a scheduled double header. The game was halted in the seventh inning by rain. The second game was postponed. Rain also washed out the scheduled double header between St. Louis and Cleveland at Cleveland.

The New York Giants retained possession of first place in the National league pennant race by walloping the Boston Braves 9-3 in the opener of a scheduled double header. The second game was halted with the Braves leading 4-3 in the top half of the fifth.

Hartung Wins Again

Clint Hartung, highly publicized outfielder turned pitcher, won his third game without a defeat although he was tagged for 11 hits. A six-run sixth inning broke up the game.

Hartung

The Giants' victory was dimmed by termination of shortstop Buddy Kerr's major league record fielding skein which had been carried over from last year. Kerr, who had played through 68 consecutive games and 384 chances without an error, committed a bobble with two out in the ninth inning. It occurred on a hard hit grounder by Bob Elliott.

The Chicago Cubs eked out a 3-1 win over the Cincinnati Reds at Wrigley field despite be held to three hits.

The Jackie Robinson-led Brolyn Dodgers nipped the Philphia Phillies 5-3 at Ebbets fiel vault into third place, one ga behind the leaders. Robin belted two singles and his seco home run of the season.

The fifth place Pittsburgh rates held the world champ St. Louis Cardinals to a s coming back to win the sec game of a double header 2-1 a dropping the opener 10-5.

Local Baseball Til Postponed by Rain

Wet grounds caused the ponement of games yesterday which Marion Crystals and Sm ty's softball club were to parti pate.

The Crystals had Ferri-Bob Columbus scheduled and the so ball outfit was to play the Del ware Indians and the Sycamo Merchants.

Memorial Day the Crystals ha a game scheduled with Aven Pharmacy of Columbus at Crys Lake park at 2:30 p. m. A tunesession is planned Wednesday the park at 6:30 p. m.

MILD RECOVERIES PERSIST IN STOCKS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 26—Mild recoveries persisted for individual stocks in today's market although many leaders edged into lower ground on dealings which were among the slowest of the past year.

Apathy ruled from the start. Plus signs were erased in many cases by midday and declines of fractions to a point or so predominated near the fourth hour. Only 200,000 shares changed hands by noon.

In the supported area were Norfolk and Western, Chesapeake and Ohio, American Telephone, Engineers Public Service, Dow Chemical, Du Pont, Standard Oil (NJ), Texas Pacific Land Trust, Homestake and Dome Mines. Laggards included Bethlehem, Chrysler, Goodyear, Montgomery Ward, International Harvester, Douglas Aircraft, Southern Railway, Great Northern Railway, Texas Co., United Fruit and Loew's.

food and thus reduce the amount for livestock feed.

The secretary-general predicted that so far production in 1948 "probably will hold its own as compared with 1947 and may increase slightly." He said Cuba expects a smaller crop next year, but increased production is forecast in the Philippine islands and Europe.

Fitzgerald said the present critical situation in Europe reflects a severe winter and unwarranted increases in ration allowances last fall—increases which could not be maintained.

Political Reasons Cited

"No doubt strong reasons—economic, social, nutritional and political—impelled governments to raise ration allowances," he said. "In some countries, evidence of malnutrition became painfully obvious last autumn.

"It is obvious," he added," that during the last year some governments too long persisted in the belief that the situation was not as dark as it had been painted. They proceeded on the assumption that export countries would somehow find ways to provide for their essential imports, and they preferred to 'take the chance'."

Fitzgerald praised the United States for aid it has given. He said assistance provided by Argentina, a major surplus producing country, had been disappointing. Argentina is not a member of the council.

necessarily" the size of armaments in the Western Hemisphere.

Rather, he made clear, the aim is one of standardization of arms so that the Western Hemisphere nations can more easily cooperate with each other.

Mr. Truman said that the program would implement the responsibilities set forth in the act of Chapultepec.

Under that agreement, the United States and the Latin American republics agreed that they would resist jointly any aggression against any of the signatory nations.

Sends Draft to Congress

Mr. Truman sent the congress a draft of suggested legislation.

A year ago, Mr. Truman requested a virtually identical act.

His message emphasized that it will be the policy of this government to encourage sound economic conditions in the other American republics as a "prerequisite to international peace and security."

"Operations under the proposed legislation will be conducted with full and constant awareness that no encouragement should be given to the imposition upon other people of any useless burden of armaments which would handicap the economic improvement which all countries so strongly desire."

Permanent Removal of Hair – By Electrolysis

Superfluous hair, not only causes great unhappiness, but also may directly bring about a deep inferiority complex. No woman can appear at her best if this distress is allowed to persist, for, regardless of how adept she is at applying make-up, all cosmetics, no matter how skillfully applied are useless in covering this type of blemish. In fact, cosmetics have a tendency to over-emphasize this condition.

Electrolysis Is the Only Method Endorsed by Physicians

Around 200 to 260 hairs can be removed in an hour, the charge is $5 per hour. Why not get an appointment for consultation, it will cost you absolutely nothing, and know the joy that comes from a face free from hair. Face the world with confidence and take your place in society and in the business world once your face is free from hair.
Special rates for arms and legs. All appointments by letter. Electrolysis has no effect on the skin, no aftermarks.

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

"MARY hasn't made any more direct threats of harming herself," I told Dr. Twitchell. "But she was terribly upset at the sight of the barred windows, read their message correctly, and gave only a half-hearted pretense of accepting the explanation I gave her. In fact, she asked me if I thought I could have her watched every minute."

Dr. Twitchell's heavy eyebrows narrowed.

"That isn't so good," he said, "but it is only what I expected. Despite her marvelous histrionism—she was giving a skillful exhibition of it to me this morning—she still is keyed up dangerously. Mrs. Bickett understands that, and I am glad you do, also. She still must be watched every minute until one of you, or both, can reach that phobia of young Mrs. Veritzen's and smash it."

Something in my eyes must have betrayed my thought, for he stopped short and stared at me.

"Can it be possible that you have found it already?" he probed.

"I am fairly sure I know what it is that she fears," I told him.

"Splendid," he commented. "What is it?"

"I am sorry," I answered, "but I am sure you will understand me when I say that I must tell no one until Mary herself gives me permission. But I can tell you that you were right in thinking it has something to do with her studying of the lines which she will have in the new play I am writing for her. And that is why I am here now."

"Go on," he said quietly.

"I am wondering if it will hurt her to study those lines under my tutelage? And how much time in each day may she devote to that study?"

He was silent for several seconds, evidently considering his reply.

"I do not think it will hurt her," he said at last. "On the contrary, I think the study will be good for her. But the periods of study must not be too long, while the intervals between them must be sufficiently lengthy.

"Mrs. Bickett will be able to determine that," he went on. "She will be watching her very carefully today. I think you may depend absolutely upon her judgment."

I smiled reminiscently.

"I have for a good many years," I told him. "Now, I have one more question to ask you. I heard you say that you were coming back again this afternoon. Does that mean that you still—"

My voice faltered, and he looked steadily at me.

All Right Physically

"Yes, I am still exceedingly anxious over her mental condition," he said. "Physically, she is all right, but she is as taut as a dozen of the proverbial fiddle strings. But it all rests with Mrs. Bickett, and very especially with you. If you are on the track of that hidden phobia, bringing her back to normalcy will be your problem. But I need not caution you to walk very cagily. She must not have any more of those explosions of desperation, for despite her brave front, she is very near the edge."

He stopped speaking, and I realized that he had told me everything he wished me to hear.

"Thank you so much, Dr. Twitchell," I said, fighting the impulse to ask him more questions. "I will follow Mrs. Bickett's advice meticulously."

"I am relying on both of you," he said. "No, don't bother to show me out. I can find the door, I assure you, and I think you should go back at once."

"I'll do that," I told him, and turned back to the bedroom to find Katharine and Mary discussing the question of breakfast.

"She's trying to bribe me," Mary said, loking at me when I had reached her bedside. But her eyes held a question which I answered quickly.

Katharine to Be Judge

"Then I had better get the message from Dr. Twitchell out of the way quickly," I said. "I asked him how much, if any, you could study for short periods if could study fo rshort periods if Aunt Katharine thought best, but that she must be the judge of the length of the study periods and of the duration of the intervals between them.

"That was all that I asked him," I said fibbing conscienceless ly. "For the rest, I am leaning heavily upon your nurse, and holding myself in readiness to take her orders."

"Thank you for the tribute," Katharine said with a grin. "And now, we'll resume the question before the house. What is your breakfaht order, Madame? Upon the size of it, and its nature, may depend the length of your interview with your husband. There are two things you must remember, however. Until your temperature is normal, nothing tried, and no hot breads."
